

UTA is re-evaluating four potential future commuter rail station sites in South Salt Lake County. UTA presented four locations, along with an evaluation of benefits and environmental impacts at public hearings in Draper and Bluffdale in November.

At the hearings, the public had opportunities to make official comments. UTA is now considering these comments and will select the location of the future Draper/Bluffdale FrontRunner commuter rail station site in early 2009.